NEW BAJA STORE!

Fairn & Swanson's retail division, Baja Duty Free, celebrated the opening of its newest store in Laredo, Texas. The 1,300 square foot store opened its doors last December and the Grand Opening took place on February 12th, 2008.

F&S currently operates seven stores along the U.S.-Mexican border. "This new addition to the Baja family is a strategically important location", stated Vice President of Retail Operations Elisa.Castro. "We see considerable sales potential for us in this market".

The Baja stores have experienced success by developing friendly and consistent service for customers. This store is part of the continuing plan of F&S to expand along the Texas border.

F&S OPENS EAST COAST IN-BOND OPERATIONS

Starting in the fall of 2007, Fairn & Swanson has been operating its own distribution center at the Fort Lauderdale Foreign Trade Zone. F&S's in-bond Florida operation now supplies some 60+ cruise vessels on a weekly basis with a wide variety of bonded products. In addition, F&S continues to provide non-bonded products to vessels and crews in Florida ports through its partnership with Berg & Stephens. According to Rene Terbeek, Vice President of Sales and Vendor Relations, "the Florida warehouse is an important step for Fairn & Swanson to be a true Coast-to-Coast, full service provider to cruise lines and other national and international customers."

NEW LOOK IN EAGLE PASS

The Baja store located in Eagle Pass, Texas underwent a major remodel project in 2007. According to Carlos O'Connor, Operations Manager for the Baja stores, "the plan was to update the look of the store by creating more areas for personalized fixtures and wall units. The most important aspect was to make the store more friendly and accessible to the customers."
